

'Skul: The Hero Slayer' unveils new playable character 'Dominator' in free update, discount on Steam

- In honor of the top crowdfunded supporter 'Murdoc,' SOUTHPAW GAMES is releasing the legendary grade Skull 'Dominator.'
- The free update is now available on PC via Steam. The console version is in development and will arrive at a later date.

SEOUL - April 8, 2024 - NEOWIZ announced today that Skul: The Hero Slayer, a 2D action platformer developed by SOUTHPAW GAMES (CEO Park Sang-Woo), released a new playable character 'Dominator' in its latest free update. The update is available through Steam now, and the console patch is currently in development for PlayStation 4, Xbox One, and Nintendo Switch.

The new Skull 'Dominator' was created to express gratitude to 'Murdoc,' who contributed greatly to the development of the game during its crowdfunding stage back in 2019. The playable character is now available worldwide, along with bug fixes and balancing some Skulls, monsters, items, and inscriptions based on user feedback.

The 'Dominator,' a legendary grade character, is a speed-type Skull who wields an evil magical sword that's alive. When fully charged with life force, the Skull can awaken its sword and unleash ruthless attacks.

To celebrate this free update, Skul will be discounted on Steam from Monday, April 8 to Monday, April 15. Players can pick up the base game for 50% off, and DLC add-ons will be available at a 10% discount.

Skul: The Hero Slayer is also available on PlayStation Plus for the month of April. Players with an active PS Plus subscription will be able to claim the full game for their library to play on PlayStation 4 as well as PlayStation 5 via backward compatibility. Skul can be claimed from Tuesday, April 2, until Monday, May 6. Skul is a 2D action platformer with roguelike gameplay elements. The game sold over 2 million copies worldwide. It's available on MacOS, Linux, Windows, PlayStation 4, Xbox One, and Nintendo Switch.
