Story Pack 15 introduces "Promise of Vengeance," featuring the escape adventure of Lathel, Liberta and Blade, and a new "Crimson Destiny" season event

SOUTH KOREA – February 13, 2025 – Mobile RPG Brown Dust 2, published by NEOWIZ and developed by GAMFS N Co., Ltd., has launched the new Story Pack 15 update titled "Promise of Vengeance."

Set just before the events of Story Pack 9, "Promise of Vengeance" follows Lathel and Liberta as they team up with Blade to escape the Cocytus Facility, known for mass-producing the Iron Mask. The plot deepens the mystery further around Lathel's path including a tense encounter with the formidable boss Morpeah.

The update also features a new season event, "Crimson Destiny," which delves into Blade's mysterious past and her origins within the Silverstein family in the Rian Republic. This standalone event intensifies as it is revealed how a young girl's fate has become irrevocably twisted. "Crimson Destiny" offers 30 battles split between normal and challenge modes, introducing adversaries like the returning Darkness Devourer and the new Basilisk as Fiend Hunter bosses.

This update introduces Apostle Blade and Young Lady Blade costumes and exclusive gear, which will be available starting today!
