SOUTH KOREA – February 25, 2025 – Action roguelike Shape of Dreams, the debut title from four-player Korean studio Lizard Smoothie, will participate in this month's Steam Next Fest with an updated demo. The demo brings a new in-game event as well as many updates including cosmetic customization, Daydream in-game quests, a rework to the Essence system, an emoji-styled chat interaction, and more.

"Thanks to the enthusiastic response from our community, we've compiled feedback on Shape of Dreams to support an updated demo for Steam Next Fest," said Eunseob Shim, co-founder and CEO, Lizard Smoothie. "We are grateful to NEOWIZ as a publishing partner, as they've empowered our small studio to deliver our game to a bigger audience. We look forward to hearing more feedback from this event to help us enhance gameplay ahead of release later this year.”

Published by South Korean game company NEOWIZ, Shape of Dreams is a hybrid of Multiplayer Online Battle Arena (MOBA) and roguelike action battle gameplay with up to 4 players in co-op. As a global leader in console, PC, and mobile gaming, their latest partnership with Lizard Smoothie continues their commitment to working with indie developers to publish a diverse catalog of titles that appeal to audiences worldwide.
