

How to Access Overture Content

Simplified

- A new Functional item called Star's Chrysalis will be added to your inventory after restoring the Hotel Krat Stargazer at the end of Chapter 9.
- Following the Star's Chrysalis quest icon in the teleport menu to Path of the Pilgrim will initiate a cutscene that begins your Overture journey.
- The Star's Chrysalis must be re-activated in each new game cycle by reaching the end of Chapter 9 again.
- Boss Rematch modes Battle Memories and Death March become accessible after seeing at least one base game ending.

Extended

At the end of Chapter 9 of the base game, Geppetto's Puppet returns to Hotel Krat after having defeated the Corrupted Parade Master boss. Hotel Krat was under attack by Simon Manus and the Alchemists while Geppetto's Puppet was away. The inhabitants of the hotel have barricaded themselves in Geppetto's office on the second floor. Once players seek them out to discover what happened, they're told Geppetto has been abducted. Repairing the main Stargazer in Hotel Krat after visiting these characters will reward you with a new Functional Item called "Star's Chrysalis" and a tooltip explaining it.

Players will now notice a new blue butterfly quest icon that appears on Chapter 5 of the Stargazer Teleport menu, directing them to the Path of the Pilgrim. Once there, players will see a short cinematic in which a blue butterfly path lights their way toward the dilapidated Stargazer at a burial ground nearby. This Stargazer will activate once Geppetto's Puppet approaches it, giving players the opportunity to start Overture right away.
