

Lies of P: Overture* wins Best DLC at the 15th Annual New York Game Awards

*Recognized as a standalone work of art for the base game's world expansion, Lies of P: Overture is proving its artistic merit and the vitality of the IP*

SEOUL, South Korea – January 20, 2026 – NEOWIZ is proud to announce that Lies of P: Overture won the NYC GWB Award for Best DLC at the 15th New York Game Awards. Organized by the New York Critics Circle, the New York Game Awards is a prestigious awards ceremony that annually selects the most outstanding achievements among games from around the world.

With the win, Lies of P: Overture was praised for its in-depth expansion of the base game's unique world. It was particularly recognized for going beyond mere expansion, adding a standout narrative and sophisticated combat mechanics, making it a complete and independent work in its own right. Previous winners in the same category include Elden Ring: Shadow of the Erdtree in 2025 and Cyberpunk 2077: Phantom Liberty in 2024.

"This award is a valuable result that once again proves the high-caliber expertise and capabilities of ROUND8 Studio and Team NOUGH development teams," stated a NEOWIZ representative. "We will continue to introduce new PC and console titles with diverse appeal, including the next installment of Lies of P, and discover successful IPs."

Adding to its accolades, the DLC continues to receive global critical acclaim, winning awards at the 2025 Golden Joystick Awards and the 2025 3DJuegos Lenovo Awards. Lies of P: Overture also won the Excellence Award and the Technology and Creativity Award for Character at the 2025 Korea Game Awards, setting a record as the first DLC to receive the award.

Given the ongoing stream of awards and positive reviews since its release, this award from the New York Game Awards is all the more significant, as it demonstrates how the Lies of P IP has built a strong foundation beyond a one-time success.
